

Recent Operations

By Paul Rardin

I notice that last week's issue of TIFP (The Sunshine Signal) published in West Palm Beach, Florida, had a headline about my friend Herbert Beck at Belle Glade and Chairman of the County Commission, Barney Patton. I would try to get from the editor of TIFP, might get it messed up, so I'll reprint the whole thing.

Here is the story as it appeared last week in TIFP:

A STATE LEGISLATURE in session must be a strange place indeed. There is so much that goes on behind the scenes we wonder how anything ever comes to the ears of the public. One doesn't have to take the last legislative session to find out how things are done. Take our own county representatives to the legislature and their doings. There were, of course, A. A. (Barney) Patton, county chairman and combined senator and representative with out portfolio; Senator John Beacham, and Representatives Herbert D. Beck and John Bollinger, who were present practically all during the session. Let's see what things and strings were worked and worked:

First off, take that strange Ocean-bill. It calls for a referendum. If passed it means Palm Beach county has to take care of repair and maintenance of Ocean-bill, where the State Highway Department doesn't function. Position held, any amount of such maintenance and repair would call for any great expenditure of funds. Here again Barney is a bit vague. He doesn't specify what part of the Ocean-bill would be under the jurisdiction of the county. In fact, only the harm and Herb Beck seemed to have had any idea about the proposed measure before it was introduced in the legislature. TIFP, of course, would say that expenditure, large or small, should not be borne by the county. It should be left up to federal and state agencies. Anyone who has lived here a few years has seen the devastating effect of the water on that Ocean-bill. Repair for even a small slice out of the boulevard can be a job. Many groins are repaired, contracts are made and all the time the stuff like this runs into money. Where there is money there are bees.

But it was the somewhat odd procedure of the passage of this measure we had in mind. The bill was called to the attention of the Ocean-bill bill. Now, as anyone knows, this bill is in the eastern part of the county, that area which normally would have the attention of the representative from this end of the county. In this instance, the boulevard is in John Bollinger's territory. But the bill for maintenance and repair of the boulevard was not introduced by Mr. Bollinger. In fact, he never even heard of it until his colleague, Herbert D. Beck, Glades representative for the county, introduced such a measure. Bollinger's support would be small. John Beck was in the room when the bill was introduced with things in general. There was one that had the bill brought. A bill from his out-bill, and obviously an important one because of its odd name in Tallahassee. "Yef, he never even heard of it." I wonder if I might see a copy of the bill in the Glades representative. If he, the Glades representative, he would not show it. He must meet in Bollinger's request so the latter was supplied with the copy.

(Note to TIFP editor from The Country Editor: Do you know where the money comes from to finance the Association of County Commissioners lobby in Tallahassee? I do. You'd be surprised how it is raised—how it is paid—and how much.)

Home Nurse Class For Women, Girls To Open Pahokee

Thirty Hour Course To Be Given Under The Red Cross

Preparations are being made to start two Red Cross Home Nursing classes in Pahokee in the near future, one for girls of high school age and the other for adult women.

The home nursing course is sponsored by the Pahokee Women's Club under the supervision of Mrs. Turner Wallace, chairman of the County ARC Home Nursing Committee, with Miss F. A. B. registered nurse, to act as instructor.

The 30-hour course is divided into four units as follows: 1. Health and Hygiene. 2. Home Life. 2. The Part the Community Plays in Protecting the Health of Home and Family. 3. How to Care for Mother and Baby. 4. What to Do When Sickens. Invades the Home. Classes will be held over two-hour periods, twice weekly at the Woman's Club until the course is completed.

Registrations are now being received for the junior class by Mrs. G. C. McFarly, local Junior Red Cross chairman, and for the senior class by Mrs. Pansy Smith, public welfare chairman, or by the librarian at the Pahokee Public Library. Classes will begin as soon as registrations are sufficient to permit organization.

Miss Murray Will Wed Sgt. Alvin Armstrong

Miss Patricia Ann Murray of Cleveland, Ohio, and Coconut Grove, Fla., will become the wife of Staff Sgt. Alvin Hughes Armstrong, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Armstrong of Pahokee, on Saturday, July 3, at 5 p. m. The wedding ceremony will take place at the Episcopal Church in Warren, Ohio.

Sgt. Armstrong graduated from Pahokee High School in 1939, following which he attended the Spartan Aeronautical Engineering School in Tulsa, Okla. He joined the Army Air Corps at MacDill Field, Tampa, on May 16, 1941 and was sent to LaGuardia Field, New York City, to take a special course in aeronautics from which he graduated on Dec. 24, 1941. Since then Sgt. Armstrong has been training at various fields in the West and Northwest and is now stationed at Kearney, Neb., where he is crew chief of the 30th Aldrome Squadron.

The bride-elect graduated from college in February of this year. She is a member of the Beta Beta Beta Sorority and is stationed there in Kearney while he is stationed there.

Dr. and Mrs. Armstrong will leave here next Tuesday to attend the wedding. Dr. Armstrong will be best man and Mrs. Jack Phillips of New York City, sister of Sgt. Armstrong, will be a member of honor.

Nassau Workers Taken Away From Sugar Company

CLEVELAND, June 24.—(FNS)—A Washington report, pointing out 250 Bahamian workers from the fields of the United States Sugar Corporation and moving them to other states, may prove disastrous, company officials declared.

The labor shortage is already critical, according to President Clarence R. Bittling and unless sufficient workers are available to insure summer operations, there will be nothing to harvest in the fall.

L. G. Alderman In Car Accident

L. G. Alderman, member of the Glades Mercantile company in Pahokee, was severely injured in a car accident Wednesday night.

Godwin when his car hit a curb and was wrecked. Mr. Alderman received a fractured knee and some broken ribs. He was taken to the Everglades Memorial hospital and transferred to a West Palm Beach hospital Thursday morning.

Here are some pointers for home folks to give details.

1. How the family is doing everything possible to help win the war.
2. How anxious the family is for the boy's return.
3. How the family is getting along financially.
4. How well and busy the family is.
5. What's going on in the community: news about girls (single) he knows, doings of friends, who's marrying whom, exploits of the home team and other sports events, social doings, effects of the war on the home town. Re-missive a little about past events and places the boy used to visit. Enclose clippings from the home town paper.

Funeral services for Lloyd Gilliland, 48, a former resident of this area who was killed accidentally at a Jacksonville shipyard Friday morning, were held at the Port Mayaca Cemetery on Wednesday at 3 p. m. Elder Darwin C. Knudsen and Elder John O'Connell officiated at the services. Members of the American Legion formed an honor guard.

Until two months ago Mr. Gilliland was employed by the government as a machine operator in Puerto Rico. From Puerto Rico he went to West Palm Beach where he stayed for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Knudsen and Elder John O'Connell. He was a member of the W. O. W. Camp and Apple Camp at Canal Point and the United Fruit Company at Latta. He was a member of Fred and Percy Mansfield Post 90 while a resident here.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Gilliland; three daughters, Joanne, Dorothy-Marie and Nelda; two sons, James, of Jacksonville and Kenneth L., who is stationed at Camp Croft, N.C. Also eight brothers and two sisters in Arizona.

The Mott-Simon Mortuary of West Palm Beach was in charge of arrangements.

Miss Holmes Is Bride Of Lieut. Valenda

Miss Joan Gail Holmes, a former Pahokee resident now living in Washington, D. C., and 2nd Lieut. Harry L. Valenda, formerly of Dickson, N. D., were married at Madison, Wis., on Thursday, June 24.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Grace Holmes of Seattle, Wash., made her home in Pahokee with her great aunt, Mrs. B. H. Ridenour, during the six years she attended Pahokee schools. After graduating from Pahokee High School in 1941, she attended and received a diploma from the Chilocho Business College, Chilocho, Mo. Since that time she has been employed as stenographer in the War Department offices at Washington.

The groom who has been attending an officers' training school in Chicago, received his commission as second lieutenant on Wednesday, June 23.

Mrs. Valenda will continue her work in Washington, where she is employed as a stenographer. She was accompanied to the wedding by her husband, Mrs. William Hughes, of Washington.

Funeral services for the infant son of the Rev. and Mrs. Fred L. Martin, former Pahokee residents now living in Fort Lauderdale, were held at the church on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Martin officiated. Burial was at Hillcrest Cemetery. Included in the party were Mrs. Martin, her husband, Mr. Martin, and Mrs. Martin.

Joint Meeting Of Lions & Rotarians Proves A Success

Officials Of Both Clubs Hope Year-End Meeting Will Be Held Annually

The first joint year-end meeting of the Pahokee Lions club and the Pahokee Rotary club was held Wednesday night at the Pahokee Woman's club building. Officials of both clubs hope that the meeting will become an annual affair and "yesterday's" gathering met with approval of all club members and, in all probability, the year-end meeting will become one of the outstanding civic functions each year.

What The Movies Have To Offer During The Coming Week

The picture to be screened at the Prince Theatre for the Owl Show Saturday and the Sunday-Monday run, in a certain way, puts me in mind of my experiences in vaudeville, when, with another and I started the trek East from the Pacific Coast with a burning ambition to become one of America's best known stars. Well, we got East and we got up in the business, but we got there the "hard way."

The title of this picture I am speaking about is "The Hard Way." It stars Ida Lupino as Leslie as her sweet sister and Dennis Morgan and Jack Carson as the vaudeville team.

Strangely enough, the story doesn't deal with the trials and tribulations of a vaudeville team, trying for top honors, but rather with the ambition of a jealous sister through fair means or foul.

In fact, she goes about it in the foulest way one can imagine. Ida Lupino is in the role of the mean sister, and brother, she gets everything out of the part there is to get.

The Tuesday-Wednesday screening is really a glorified Western show, for which the producers pulled open the purse strings and lavished money on. It is excellently directed and perfectly casted, and the story has body, so there isn't any reason why it shouldn't please the most exacting movie goer.

This show is "Buckskin Frontier," starring Richard Dix, Albert Dekker, Jane Wyatt and Victor Jory, and the story deals with the coming of the railroad to the West and the bitter opposition it encountered from the cattlemen in that district, and particularly the men who controlled the overland freight lines at that time. There are plenty of barnroom draws and out-door shooting matches, in which the loser is generally planted with his boots on, and there is a whole lot of good romance threading its way through the story with Dix and Dekker as rivals. It's really a good show.

Those men are here again—Who? Lon Chaney Jr., Bela Lugosi and Patrick Knowles, and they are here with another horror picture for your Thursday-Friday show under the title of "Frankenstein Meets The Wolf Man."

This picture, made by a recognized studio, whose product is generally above the rating of fair is said to be one of the creepiest, shiver dramas to come out of Hollywood this year.

Lon Chaney Jr., following closely in his famous father's footsteps, is seen as the Wolfman and, of course, Bela Lugosi resurrects the old creaking man, whose mother and life are the lightning from the heavens, and when these two get together I am sure there will be all the surprise, thrills and action one could ask for.

You will note that on Tuesday-Wednesday and Thursday-Friday you have single features. This is due to the shortage of materials for making as many pictures as have been made in the past. For that reason, we will be forced to do away with double-features we have been in the habit of playing in the past.

These features, however, there will be a carefully selected program of current news and short subjects, which will embrace comedy, science and interesting facts that are always appreciated by those who enjoy the unusual in motion pictures.

Saturday will always be the same old Saturday for the members of the Six Shooters Club. On this particular Saturday Roy Rogers and his popular partner George "Gaby" Hayes come to our screen in a swell story of the West under the title of "Sunset Serenade," a thoroughly enjoyable picture.

Well, folks, there it is for the week and I hope you enjoy every one of them. By the bye, remember that from Monday through Friday the box office opens at 10:40 P. M. and the feature picture starts at 8:00 P. M. sharp. The Saturday and Sunday shows and the owl show will not be affected.

The army's goal for the production of planes is 125,000 a year, the present rate is 5000 a month or 60,000 a year.

A thirty-five foot railroad rail is three-sixteenths of an inch shorter in the winter than it is in the summer, due to the contraction caused by the cold.

"More than ever people driving or walking should be on the alert against accidents. People have become careless of each other, and or injured, all of which could be prevented if people would just THINK," stated Asher Frank, Director of the Florida Safety Council.

FOR THE DURATION - AND 6 MONTHS

Uncle Sam and I have a little unfinished business to take care of. Consequently I'm closing my filling station this week until this little matter is straightened out. I'm deeply appreciative of the patronage of my many friends and when the whole thing is over I hope to be back doing business at the same old stand.

In the meantime buy an extra bond or two and I'll see what can be done about obliterating those rascals who started this mess.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Just dropped by to tell you, Frank, I had a fine letter from your son, Joe, this morning. Right away, I called the time to write him a letter. I told him how proud I was of him, and how much I loved him. I told him that I was very fond of you, Judge Catherine is certainly proud of Joe and proud of the great Army he's a part of."

Joe is one fine fellow and the Army he's in is the best disciplined, best behaved in our history. Just last night I was reading an article that quoted a report signed by five children in the very camp where Joe is now training. I remember their exact words which was "there is no liquor problem in the Post." And I understand that's true in camp after camp all over the country. And if Catherine would like to see that report, I'll drop it off at the house tomorrow."

★ ★ What about Florida Transportation Facilities?

Existing transportation facilities must be considered in selecting locations for military camps and bases. Labor and material cannot be spared to create extensive new facilities.

The adequate double track capacity of the Florida East Coast Railway has helped to make the East Coast of Florida a logical area for extensive military training activities.

Such modern transportation facilities, so indispensable today, will also prove a valuable asset in attracting new industries and residents when military activities cease and peace returns to our war-weary world.

Meanwhile the war must be fought and won. You can help by avoiding unnecessary travel and weekend trips in order that the needs of art expanding military activity may be readily met.

PARTY line Telephone courtesy certainly pays extra dividends these days when so many families are sharing lines with their neighbors.

When party line neighbors are considerate of each other, the telephone service of all is improved. And when neighbors avoid tying up their line with lengthy conversations, they help relieve busy central office equipment so that vital war calls can be handled faster. Here are some other friendly suggestions that will mean better service for you, your telephone neighbor and Uncle Sam:

- 1—Answer calls promptly—and before you call, make sure the line is not in use.
- 2—Make fewer calls and when you do call, be as brief as possible.
- 3—Avoid tying up the line by making a series of calls at one time.
- 4—And please be careful to hang up your receiver when you finish talking. When a party line telephone receiver is left off the hook, no one on the line can make or receive calls until the receiver is put back on the hook.

At the front, teamwork wins battles. At home, the same spirit of personal cooperation results in better telephone service—for you, your party line neighbor and your entire community.

AMERICANS are learning that war reaches deep into the lives of all. There are dislocations of accustomed practices—from room homes to much less consequential disruptions. Meat and shoes, soap and gasoline are on a share basis, neighbor with neighbor, state with state.

The sharing of gasoline, for example, has thrown a nation-wide "out of gear." Daily going and coming have been revolutionized for millions. Yet with a minimum of confusion and complaint. For our part, we pay our respects to the motorists of the South for the spirit and aptitude with which they have met these wholly strange methods and procedures.

Thank you, Southern car- and truck-drivers. You have shared your gasoline without grumbling. You have quietly adapted yourselves to the coupon, to the tire inspection requirements and to the sometimes annoying details of regulation. The oil industry is carrying a heavy burden in the performance of its distribution and marketing obligations to the Government and to you.

Thank you for your help.
